Waiting on God

As a consumer driven society, fast service is always expected. Many of us can remember the days when we used dialup internet. The modem would:

1. Dial the number
2. Hope to establish a connection
3. Send the data and verification to the server (Remember the unique sound?)
4. Connect Successfully

Sometimes it took minutes to establish a connection. At the time, we were used to it, and it was normal. However, as technology has advanced, Dial-up would now be frowned upon by everyone, especially me.

The other day my Roku was giving me problems, and I got to the point (I admit I was mad.) where I was ready to throw it away. I'd had enough of it not connecting quickly enough! Can you relate to this need for an immediate response? Maybe the fast food drive-thru took three minutes longer than usual, or some other convenience we have didn't meet your need for speed.

As we have become accustomed to speed and convenience many, unfortunately, transfer those same expectations to God. However, God does not work on our timetable. He sees farther, knows more, and is greater than we can even imagine. While waiting on God can sometimes be frustrating, it will always produce the very best in us.

- Domingo

"Be patient, then, brothers, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer awaits the precious fruit of the soil—how patient he is for the fall and spring rains. You too, be patient and strengthen your hearts, because the Lord's coming is near. Do not complain about one another, brothers, so that you will not be judged. Look, the Judge is standing at the door!"

James 5:7-9
