Thankful

It has been 5 months since we officially merged and became the Greenbank Church of Christ. The events that led to discussions between First State and Cedars, I believe, were orchestrated by God. I am constantly being asked the same question by outsiders: "How are things are going?" The question is sometimes asked with a tone that implies a negative report is expected. However, I have nothing negative to say! Furthermore, I am still overjoyed by what God has done and is doing! I am seeing so many things that make me proud to say I worship at the Greenbank Church of Christ.

1. The energy is wonderful: The hope, optimism, and joy are noticeable through our worship, discussions, and work. Passion and energy are contagious, and it is important that we continue to stay excited about who we are and what God is doing with us.
2. Involvement is growing: We have new teachers, new pantry volunteers, new ministries, new ministry leaders, and new ministry team members. This type of Involvement will help us grow individually and collectively.
3. Relationships are forming: Relationships are the glue that hold a church together. As we continue to work and worship together, we will continue to grow closer and get to know one another on a more personal level.

Friends, we need to maintain that passion & energy, continue to grow our ministry involvement and grow deeper in our relationships with one another. We have so many areas that need our attention. Jesus stated, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few" Matthew 9:37. We need all hands-on deck in order to grow our church and effectively share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with our community. Please pray for our elders, ministers, for one another, and especially for the lost.

I believe God has many more amazing things in store for us if we just put our hands to the plow, and move forward in faith. I pray that God will continue to bless our efforts as we strive to serve Him and one another.
