Lifting Up Jesus

“I will lift up my Savior
In everything I do;
I will keep self far out of sight
That Christ may be in view.”

Is Jesus seen in all you do? Is this true in your life all the year through? Is it true all the day through? When things go wrong in the home and you are tried and tempted—do you lift up Christ in these times?

We sing the song heartily—but do we really and truly live it day in and day out? It is dangerous to sing such songs—and then pass on and not live them. To know to do a thing—and then through neglect or carelessness fail to live it—is a very serious matter. Keep self out of sight—and set Christ in view.

Two men went to hear a preacher preach one Sunday morning. One said to the other after the preaching, “That was an eloquent discourse; he is a wonderful preacher.” In the evening they went to hear another preacher. After the services one said to the other, “What a wonderful Savior is Jesus.”

People sing about Jesus being lifted up in our lives; preachers preach about it—but what God wants is for people to live it. Live it, dear Christian, in all the details of everyday life. Live it in thought, word, and deed. Have the imprint of Christ’s life upon every word and act. You can do it, if you associate with Christ as with a loving friend, if you take time to read, pray and meditate so as to assimilate the life of Christ into your own. Be encouraged and set to work with a determination to win.
