

Greenbank Family Update – March 20, 2020

We want to continue serving each other. If you need help, please contact the church office. If you are able and willing to help those in need, please let us know, and we will match skills to needs.

PRAYER & PRAISE

Pray for all affected by the Coronavirus, and for protection of health for all others.

The Brannock & Cox families: Ronnie Cox's brother, Joe Brannock, passed away

Bob Crusco: began outpatient dialysis this week

Rick Mickowski: heart monitoring after AFib episode

Jonathan Mitchell, Jr: serious health concerns

Ken & Joyce Essex, Ron Essex, and Joe Sullivan – These are all family members of Doug Essex who are dealing with heart health issues.

Christina Steiner: job search

Our Shut-ins: George Adair; Connie Dowds, Joan Gaynor, Agnes Ignudo

We will only be listing current requests here. If you have an item for prayer or praise, please email it to the church office office@greenbankcoc.org to be included in our weekly list. For those people and ministries that are on our ongoing prayer lists, please visit our website www.greenbankcoc.org and look at the bulletin posted on March 15, 2020 for the most recent list.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- All worship services, Bible classes, and ministry meetings are suspended until further notice.
- Our food pantry is closed until, at least, April 16. It may be necessary to remain closed longer.
- The Middletown Ladies Day Tea that was scheduled for Saturday, March 21, is canceled.
- Our potluck luncheon scheduled for Sunday, March 29, is canceled.
- As of today, our fellowship event, Queen Esther at Sight & Sound Theatre, is still on schedule. The Sight & Sound organization continues to assess the COVID-19 situation and will make updates as needed. So, if you want to attend this show, please let us know, and we will reserve your seat. We will not ask for payment for tickets until a later date. If you would like to attend, but are not able to afford the cost, please contact Fern Davis or the church office.
