Thankful Every Day by Domingo Reyes

This Sunday, the world celebrates Easter. It is a day to remember the victory Jesus had over death in his resurrection. That is truly something worthy of celebration! Many houses of worship will be at full capacity. Many that generally do not attend services will get up and watch virtual services this Sunday. As much as I love the attention, focus, excitement, and opportunity – I also wonder what happens on Monday?

You see, Jesus is worthy of our attention daily. I want to encourage you to take time during each day to reflect on the impact Jesus' sacrifice has made in your life. Through His resurrection, Jesus triumphed over death. This act powerfully demonstrated God's great power over life and death. This act encourages us as we realize that nothing is too great for our God! Whatever troubles we face, whatever hardships, God can give us victory over it.

In 2 Corinthians 9:15 Paul writes, "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift." What Jesus did for us is so profound we cannot fully put it into words. In the previous chapter Paul wrote: "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9).

We cannot forget that Jesus paid it all for us. He died so that we might live. Let us remember, reflect, and be thankful for Him daily. I leave you with the words from the hymn "He Bore It All" by J.R. Baxter:

My precious Savior suffered pain and agony,
He bore it all that I might live;
He broke the bonds of sin and set the captive free,
He bore it all that I might live.

Refrain:

He bore it all that I might see His shining face,
Freely bore it all that I might live;
I stood condemned to die but Jesus took my place,
He bore it all that I might live.

They placed a crown of thorns upon my Savior's head,
He bore it all that I might live;
By cruel man with spear His side was pierced and bled,
He bore it all that I might live. [Refrain]

Up Calvary's hill in shame the blessed Savior trod,
He bore it all that I might live;
Between two thieves they crucified the Son of God,
He bore it all that I might live [Refrain]
