Not Just a List – Tim & Rebecca Tucker

Have you ever wondered about the long lists of names in the Old Testament? Multiple places have names listed – many of which are never mentioned again anywhere in Scripture. Maybe more curious is all the lists of names that Paul includes in his writings. His letters are all very short. Why would space be given to “just a list of names?”

Well, after more than 30 years, it is time for us to be moving on. Cedars/Greenbank has been our home for all these years. Greenbank has been such an important part of our lives – and has shaped much of who we are. Rebecca and I met because of the connection of Greenbank to Camp Manatawny. I attended a retreat at Camp with other Greenbank members, and Rebecca was there from West Virginia.

You have been there for the good times: the birth and raising of our two children, their acceptance of Christ, and their maturing into the faithful adult Christians they are today. You were also with us during the difficult times: the loss of Tim’s grandparents, brother, and father; the loss of Rebecca’s father, mother, and very recently her brother. Life presents these challenges to all of us, and we could not have had a better family of believers to help us through it all. We have served with you the best we knew how, and always received back so many blessings in return.

Back to the list of names – the names that Paul listed were people important to him, people he loved, people he cared about, and people who loved him. I’m sure he would never want us to think of those people as “just a list of names.”

We, also, have a list of names! Each and every one of you are on our list. You each have blessed us in so many ways, and we will never forget any of you. We are so blessed to have such a long list of people who have had such a positive influence on us. We hope we are on your list, too!

We love you all and will miss you greatly. Please come visit us in Burns, TN. If you wait until early 2023, we should be able to introduce you to our first granddaughter. ~ Tim & Rebecca
