Simple by Mark Finn

MOST OF US don't need another explanation, more information, or a new translation of what the scriptures clearly say. We simply need to do, and in doing, to learn. Look at how practical basic Biblical Christianity is:

“The end of all things is near. Therefore, be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen” (1 Peter 4:7-11).

There it is: pray, love, offer hospitality, use your gift, serve others, speak words of God. Simple. A Bible expert once tried to turn the question of “who is my neighbor” into a theological debate (Luke 10:25-37). Jesus wouldn't do it. Instead, he told the simple story of the Good Samaritan. No debate, no discussion. Love comes down to action. Simple.

Simple by Mark Finn

MOST OF US don't need another explanation, more information, or a new translation of what the scriptures clearly say. We simply need to do, and in doing, to learn. Look at how practical basic Biblical Christianity is:

“The end of all things is near. Therefore, be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen” (1 Peter 4:7-11).

There it is: pray, love, offer hospitality, use your gift, serve others, speak words of God. Simple. A Bible expert once tried to turn the question of “who is my neighbor” into a theological debate (Luke 10:25-37). Jesus wouldn't do it. Instead, he told the simple story of the Good Samaritan. No debate, no discussion. Love comes down to action. Simple.
