Rejoicing in God's Blessings for Our Church Family

This month, we have so much to be thankful for as a church family. One of the most exciting moments is the appointment of two new elders, David and Arturo. Their willingness to step into this role is a big deal—it shows how God is continuing to work among us, raising up leaders who are committed to serving and strengthening the body of Christ.

As we celebrate this important milestone, we also have an opportunity to refocus on how we, as a congregation, can encourage and support our leaders. The Bible reminds us in Hebrews 13:17 that leadership isn't a solo act; it's a team effort. By lifting up our elders—both new and current—with words of encouragement, prayers for wisdom, and a spirit of cooperation, we help set the stage for them to lead well.

So, while we celebrate David and Arturo's new roles, let's also rally behind them and all our leadership. Let's be intentional about showing support, whether it's a kind word, an offer to help, or a prayer of thanks. When we work together, we honor God, strengthen our church family, and reflect the unity that comes from following Jesus.

Together, we can keep growing as a church that shows God's love and faithfulness to everyone around us.
